Resolution 2025-030 Authorizing the City of Moulton to protect the City of Moulton's interest by intervening as a defendant in the Simplified Seller Use Tax (SSUT) Litigation

Motion: Chris Proctor
2nd: Tate Gilley

Approve Appropriation Request Information Sheet to begin being given out starting January 1, 2026, with a due date of July 1, 2026, to be considered in the 2026-2027 Budget Year

Motion: Cassandra Lee
2nd: Danny Morris

Approve new contract introduced at last Work Session and for bids to be let for the upcoming year's mowing season for Moulton Memorial Gardens. Council Member Tate Gilley ask if with the 1-year contract with possibility of 3 years was there a set or locked in price for all 3 years if that is decided to continue for 3 years or what is the outline for that part of the contract. Mayor Jolly stated that if Council wanted to discuss this detail at the next Work Session on December the 15th that this matter could be tabled until after that is discussed in more detail.

Motion to table decision on Mowing Contract for Moulton Memorial Gardens until more discussion on December 15, 2025, on concerns with the 1-to-3-year option details for cost: Danny Morris

2nd: Cassandra Lee

Approve for Christmas Holiday to be extended for all employees to include Friday December 26, 2025, but at regular payrate. Employees who are required to work that shift will be able to bank time to be used later – in which their supervisor will be responsible for keeping up with and making sure that paperwork is submitted when time is used noting that is what is taking place.

Motion: Chris Proctor
